AHA Annual Picnic - July 28, 2007

The American Hindu Association joint picnic with Association of Indians in America, Madison Area Telugu Association and Wisconsin Tamil Sangam, will be held on Saturday, July 28th at Mendota Park. The picnic will begin at 10:00 AM and end at about 3:00 PM. We would appreciate if you could bring a dish to pass.

We suggest that you bring a couple of lawn chairs along in case we don't have enough picnic tables or benches for everyone. Kids are encouraged to bring any game board, football, soccer ball, beach ball, badminton racquet, and any other sport equipment to make this an interesting day.

Ethics always says, 'Not I, but thou.' Its motto is: 'Not self, but non-self.' The vain ideas of individualism, to which man clings when he is trying to find that Infinite Power or that Infinite Pleasure through the senses, have to be given up — say the laws of ethics. You have to put yourself last, and others before you. The senses say, 'Myself first.' Ethics says, 'I must hold myself last.' Thus, all codes of ethics are based upon this renunciation; destruction, not construction, of the individual on the material plane. That Infinite will never find expression upon the material plane, nor is it possible or thinkable.

O God of mercy who performs the dance of illimitable happiness in the hall of inconceivable intelligence! The Rig and the other Vedas are thundering forth in words, announcing to us that all are thy slaves, all things belong to thee, all actions are thine, that thou pervades everywhere, that this is thy nature. Such is the teaching of those who, though they never speak, broke silence for our sake.
